LOCAL MATTERS.

Business Locals under this heading among editorial notices will be charged fifteen cents per line each publication. No deviation from this rule to anyone.

Borrow your Money of BOWLUS, the only lender who has money to let WITHOUT COMMISSION ON ANY LENGTH OF TIME and interest payable ANNUALLY at end of year.

Measles and mumps.
 Borrow money of Bowlus.
 "Iola Favorite" at Templin's.
 Attend the Literary to-night.
 Miss Ella Ramsey is on the sick list.

Farmers are preparing for spring work.

Washington's anniversary next Tuesday.

There is a good demand for land to cultivate.

W. G. McDonald closed his school last Friday.

Bargains in Overcoats at Anderson and DeClute's.

A splendid assortment of toilet soaps at Stevenson's.

The prospect for another large crop of apples is fine.

The Iola Opera House is destined to be a popular place.

Capt. Lindsey, of Garnett, was in our town this week.

Mrs. Alice Scott, of Cherryvale, is visiting relatives in Iola.

Who will venture a prediction as to the weather next month?

Judge Kelso, of Parsons, was in our town the first of the week.

Full and complete stock of stationery at Stevenson's drug store.

An unusually large amount of prairie will be broken this season.

Our attorneys are getting ready for the March term of District Court.

You should attend the Literary to-night and hear Dr. Scott's lecture.

M. H. Donaho, of Humboldt, was in our city on Wednesday of this week.

Our County Treasurer paid out some thirteen thousand dollars one day this week.

New and complete stock of Stationery, Blank Books and fancy articles at Scott's.

When the Iola Opera House is fully completed it will be the finest in Southern Kansas.

We can furnish the REGISTER and Leavenworth Times for one year for $2.50 cash in advance.

The attendance in our public schools has greatly improved. Scholars are getting over the measles.

Mr. Delap last week sold an Ayrshire calf to a man in Illinois for $60.00. Mr. D. has some fine blooded stock.

L. D. Search sells his hotel furniture at public auction at the Commercial Hotel, commencing February 28th.

A full line of regular Homeopathic Medicines just received, and will be kept constantly on hands at Scott's.

If the weather clerk endorses the announcement made in almanacs, spring will commence next Tuesday.

James DeMoss came home the first of the week from Keokuk, Iowa, where he has been attending a medical school.

N. Miller will sell personal property at public sale, February 28th, at Mr. Brown's residence, near the river bridge.

It looked natural to the old residents here to see Rev. E. K. Lynn in the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday.

Go to Bowlus for money and borrow at "the old-fashioned" rate—interest payable annually, and no commissions whatever.

Bowlus has $100,000 to loan to farmers, in any sums desired, on one, two three or five years time, at the very lowest rate of interest.

Senator E. H. Funston came down to his home near Carlyle last Saturday to see his family, some of whom are down with the measles.

Good rheumatic weather of late, and those who are afflicted should remember that they will find all standard remedies at Stevenson's.

There will be no doubt about a full programme at the Literary to-night. Dr. Scott's lecture on "Poets and Poetry," will be worth hearing.

The temperance law is being pretty generally discussed by our people, and various opinions are entertained as to the probability of its being enforced.

When afflicted with a cough, cold or any of the ills of humanity, remember that all standard remedies are to be found at Stevenson's.

We are requested to announce that the new M. E. Church at Colony will be dedicated the 18th of March. All are invited to attend.

The boss five cent cigar is the "Iola Favorite," sold only by Templin at the post-office news stand. These cigars are manufactured expressly for him.

On Friday, March 4th, Elizabeth Dunlap will sell a large amount of personal property at public sale at her residence on the Rotermund farm, near Carlyle.

Those who are gathering up greenbacks with the hope of escaping taxation would do well to read the late decision of the U. S. Supreme Court on this question.

The Fort Scott Monitor last week retracted its statements in reference to Miss Travis and published her vindication, as appeared in the REGISTER a few weeks since.

There have been no meeting of the Iola Literary for two weeks on account of disagreeable weather, and the programme for this evening will be the same as published for two weeks ago.

It is coming time of year to clean up around and beautify your homes. In doing this there is nothing that is as cheap as a little paint judiciously applied. You will find Stevensons' stock of paints complete.

Dr. H. C. Bostwick, of New Tacoma, Washington Territory, stopped off at Iola last Friday to spend a few days among relatives and friends at his old home. The doctor is on his way to Chicago on business of importance.

M. W. Post, whose serious illness we mentioned last week, died on Friday the 18th inst. He was buried on Sunday with Masonic honors by the lodge of this place, of which he was a member. A funeral was preached at the Presbyterian church by the Rev. R. Hahn.

While at Topeka last week we learned that our Representative, R. B. Stevenson, was one of the most faithful members of the House, being in constant attendance at all its sessions, and keeping track of all important business. Bob is making a good representative, but we are of the opinion that he would not like it for a regular business.

The following are the names of those that carried off the prizes in the spelling classes. Advanced class: Olive Cornell, Marion Harris and Nancy Hecox. Intermediate class: Elmer Munger and John Heath. Primary class: Lillie Dennison and Flora Roush.

The following are the names of those whose attendance for the term is above 90 per cent.: Lillie and Oscar Landon, Nancy and Alfred Hecox, Mary, Frank and Lewis See, John and Perry Heath, John Harris, Elmer Munger, Lillie and Thomas Dennison, George and Curtis Cornell, Linna and Perry Malcom, Emma and George Townsend and Bertie Allenbaugh.

A vacation of five weeks and then commence the spring term.

I return my thanks to the patrons of the district for their co-operation with me during the term, and also for their kindness, and hope my next term will be as successful as the last.

Names of the school board: Mr. Barnhart, Director; Mr. James Pees, Treasurer, and Mr. Cary Roush, Clerk.

M. L. JACOBY, Teacher.

East Deer Creek.

February 22, 1881.

Mr. REGISTER:—I see you can make very good articles out of a little or nothing, so I will venture to give you a few more items.

Stock begins to show the effects of the long continued winter.

O. Strickland took the hide off of one of his cows the other day.

We notice a large number of calves in the neighborhood. Some have frozen to death.

Mr. Merchant and the Sprague boys are anxious to see the frost out of the ground so as to commence fencing; also many others are ready to build fences. There will be more fencing and breaking prairie done here this season than there has been for many years.

Mr. Jackson has been down in Neosho county to look after his herd of cattle that he is having wintered there.

Dotson Matthews has his foot out, which prevents him working on his fence. He has his lumber and is preparing to build a new house.

Mrs. Sprague still remains sick.

Jacob Hoff lost his youngest son last week, the cause being lung fever.

Mrs. Isaac Mowrer and Mrs. H. L. Trumbull, of Elizabethtown, are very sick at present.

Diamond literary spoiled by the rain last Thursday night. It lacks something of its last winter's attraction, owing to the absence of two of its main speakers, J. F. Strickland and Charley Malers.

Oso Smith has sold his team to G. Doxle and will work for him by the month, owing to high rents.

John Smith is going to Neosho county soon to get work.

The young man that went out the other night to shoot one of his neighbor's worthless dogs, was much surprised the next morning to find he had killed his own valuable dog, worth ten dollars or more.

There were the largest snow drifts the last storm that were ever seen in this vicinity we think. Lanes were full to the top of the fences.

The social at G. L. Smith's last evening was rather poorly attended owing to high water; and this morning, the 23d, to make things lively his house caught fire, or rather a bed in the upper story. It was put out without doing much damage, however.

DEER CREEKER.

Geneva Jottings.

February 22, 1881.

The Presbyterians received their organ Wednesday. It is a Beatty, cabinet parlor, and cost at Washington N. J., $85. The freight was $8.62. The entire cost ($73.62) is paid, and by request we say to the community, and all who have helped, thanks; also, you are bringing your friends, cordially invited to regularly attend service, and receive the benefit of your investment.

Mr. John W. Cleek has just sold to C. H. Rhodes, for young stock amounting to $500, his 45 acre farm. Mr. C. bought of Geo. Vance and Mr. V. of Geo. Lyman. Bro. Cleek informs us that he is not tired of Kansas, but is now ready to rent a good place.

Sabbath day a fair audience gathered at the stone church, at three o'clock, to pay their last respects to Mrs. S. A., wife of M. M. Vinton. This lady died at Tipton, Mo., Thursday morning, Feb. 17th, 1881, of consumption. At morning service announcement was made that her Pastor, Rev. Q. C. Todd would conduct the funeral exercise, but as he failed to appear, it fell to Rev. S. M. Irwin to officiate. Sister V. leaves a husband and three motherless boys. They have tender sympathy from many friends both here and elsewhere.

Nobody.

Liberty Jottings.

February 22, 1881.

Ed. REGISTER:—It has been some time since our portion of the county has been represented in your paper. If you will allow us a small space we will give you a few jottings from here.

Mr. Allistot and family intend moving to Texas in a short time.

Mrs. Julia Malcom is improving in health, but very slowly.

Mr. C. Newton has gone to Illinois to make a short visit among his many friends.

The meeting at Liberty church was discontinued on account of high water, mud and drifted snow.

The people of Liberty have had a splendid time here in their literary this winter. It has proven a grand success. Nearly every evening the house was crowded to its utmost capacity. The literary closed last Tuesday evening.

The young people intend have an exhibition here in about three weeks, and they are making preparations to have a grand time.

Our winter term of school closed last Friday, under the supervision of M. L. Jacoby. He is retained in the school for the next term, which will commence March 28th. May success crown his efforts in the future as well as they have in the past.

SCRIBE.

School Notice.

There will be a public examination of teachers for Allen County, Kansas, at the school house in Iola, commencing at 8 o'clock A. M., on Saturday, March 5th, 1881, and also on Saturday April 2d, 1881, at 8 o'clock A. M.

FRANK ROBT,

Supt. Pub. Inst.

Special Correspondence.

FAIR LAWS, Feb. 22, 1881.

Mr. Jewett, from Iowa, has arrived with his family and goods, and will live upon Dick Gwillim's place this summer. His family consists of himself, wife, daughter and son, and nephew. Judging from appearances he is just the kind of a man we want here. One of his valuable horses was frightfully bruised by chafing in the car.

Norton's are preparing to paint their house.

P. J. McGlashan bought some steers at the auction on Rock Creek. We are informed that everything in the stock line sold very high considering the quality.

Smith has seventy-five lambs, all of which are doing well. It is rather early for young lambs.

Rev. Carwardine preaches his farewell sermon here next Sunday. All turn out and hear him.

We have been informed that Miss Kitty Ohlfest and C. T. Reeder were married on the 14th.

The alcot on the trees and hedges last Saturday morning was something pretty to behold. We greatly fear that it is "good bye" peaches.

We did not know how to appreciate our mail line until we missed our regular Sunday reading matter, (especially the REGISTER.)

Rowe says that he done better with his sheep than he expected to. He will probably try it again this fall. He and Mr. Stewart have fed about 12,000 bushels of corn this winter.

We noticed horsemen riding around over their "claims" and calling upon brother leaguers last Sunday.

Farmers are preparing to sow oats as soon as the ground will permit. We hope those trees that we spoke about some time ago, will be planted as soon as the ground is fit.

We are well acquainted with those capitalists of Maine who contemplate coming west. They will not come to this part of the county, as they desire more timber in order to run saw mills, etc.

Coal is 15 cents per bushel at Fort Scott and none to be had only as it is shipped in on the cars. I. XL.

Carlyle Items.

We rejoice to see the snow disappear under the rays of the sun.

Measles are fashionable now, so do not be afraid to catch them.

The sound of the ax has become too frequent on the Sabbath day in our usually quiet village.

No preaching at the church last Sabbath, the minister being absent to assist in the funeral of Mr. Post near Iola.

J. W. Bulen and wife expect to start for Ohio next week, where they will reside.

Some very fine walnut logs are being hauled to our station for shipment.

D. F. Glikeson is putting up a new house in Carlyle which he expects to occupy as soon as finished.

Miss Rose McGurk is to have a new organ soon.

A coal famine prevails in this vicinity.

Mr. McClaren and son will leave for Colorado in a few days, there to grow up with the country. FARMER.

Osage Scraps.

February 22, 1881.

O! Spring where art thou?

Sam. Bloom will soon be a resident of Iola.

A horse frightened and ran away from Frank Bray last week, and as he ran, a sharpened post which he dragged by the halter passed entirely through him.

Cholera is reported among the hogs of east Osage.

Rev. Shockey has returned from Nebraska. We understand he intends going the round of his old circuit.

Osage is afflicted with measles, diphtheria, whooping-cough and scarlet fever.

Rev. Wyman, Baptist, preached at Montevale Sunday last. The church was opened and one more member added to the class.

School closes at Spring Valley and in the League district the 28th inst.

G. H. Requa has started a cash business, claiming the ability to give special bargains for said article called cash.

We understand there were one or two special correspondents who wrote for a purpose last week; but alas those terrible scissars!

Jim Neeley of Spring Valley has sold his farm, getting $1500 for 150 acres partially improved.

Will Ross recently took a trip to Cherokee county and Missouri in search of young cattle. He purchased a few in Bourbon county on his return.

Owing to our being confined to south Osage we are unable to report the haps and mishaps of north Osage. It occurs to us that a correspondence from that part should be gotten.

The thaw of the last few days has made the branches booming.

Rev. Carwardine will preach at Montevale, Saturday evening. He goes to conference next week.

Schools throughout the township have been greatly damaged by the recent weather. REGULUS.

All parties wanting Flax Seed report to me at once. A. W. BECK.
